Meeting was called to order at 7pm

Citizens and Delegations, none

Approval of Minutes of Previous Meeting: Minutes passed

Correspondence: none

Additions to Agenda: none

Consideration of Land Use Proposals: Jennifer Kaufman said broad but good. "Maybe update mission statement."

Asked Mary Concklin regarding wording. Mary agreed.

Motion by Mary and Axel 2nd to accept revised ordinance as edited. Passed unanimously.

Will be forwarded to Mr. Beets. – It will get on May agenda.

Discussion:

- Farmers market (James) – turned over to Park's committee in 1979 Sally Pepinheimer.
 - Jennifer spoke with Sally. Maybe have a goal/objective to support the market. Sally Millius may be liason.
- Plan of C/D. Has verbiage regarding conservation and agriculture. Also have a Power Point presentation. Jennifer Kaufman will draft some talking points.
- James - Jennifer Kaufman will be moving on.
- Michael Westerfield – Cautious to take on responsibility until the TC accepts.
- May – All three topics are equally important.
- James – Sometimes the topics are conflicting.
- Aquifer issue – More stringent regulations should be enforced
- Suggestions by Jennifer Kaufman –
 - Send letter to Farmers on the list to possibly join the commission. It would be nice to have ladd's or WMTC Food Co-op.
- Mary doesn't think that the chemical regulation is an issue.

Other Business: Jennifer Kaufman announcement – Killingly HS 5-7
